Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Sir:

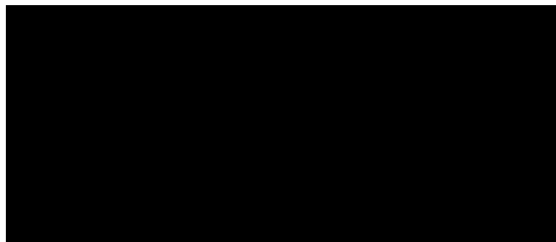

We have for acknowledgment your letter of December 12, 1951, with attachments in regard to claim of three employees in your department for alleged damage to their consignments.

We are returning herewith the entire file. 25X1A9a
After review of these statements of [REDACTED] it is 25X1A9a quite apparent that there is no claim against the steamship company, but a claim against the packing company. Therefore, we respectfully suggest that you submit this claim to the [REDACTED]

25X1A5a1

We can/quite understand how, after reading the reports of damage in regard to cases which were delivered intact and the damage definitely appears in all statements not only due to the bad packing, but carelessness of handling the cases, why a claim should be presented to us.

Very truly yours,
